

MOFFAT: TREATMENT ROOM LATEST

Wednesday, 17 March 2010

Head coach Rob Moffat speaks exclusively to Black and Red Radio about the latest news coming out of Edinburgh's treatment room as we head into the final furlong of the season.

Moffat brings us up to speed regarding what exactly happened to young scrum half Ross Samson and the treatment he has since received, he also talks about Simon Webster and Jim Thompson. To listen to the interview please click here.

Now just five games are left in the regular season with all of the teams striving to be in pole position for the play-offs. Edinburgh can take one significant step closer to the Grand Final by getting a positive result against Scarlets in our next home match – why not cheer them on to victory? Friday night rugby returns to EH12 on Friday 26 March, kick off 7.30pm when the Black and Red Army take on the Scarlets. For tickets please call 0131 346 5180 and become part of a team our capital can be proud of.

{mp3remote}http://www.edinburghrugby.org/images/stories/audio/moffatinjuriesnew.mp3{/mp3remote}